

Boxing Commission Should Suspend Mike Gibbons for Not Trying in His Bout With Ted

Concrete. 1916, in The Press Publishing Co. The New York Erector World! F Mike Gibbons is allowed to box in New York State again within the next few months it will be because that dear Boxing Commission believes in turning the other check. When Mike wants a little spare change he comes to New York to get it. Just why Mike should pick ! on us only Mike knows, and he won't tell. We must be soft. Undoubtedly we are a Rube village. Otherwise, why should Mike hang it on us? He just hops in here from St. Paul, hands us a good old-fashioned gold brick, and hops back to St. Paul brick, and hops back to St. Paul again with a brand new bankroll.

Mike came briskly into town a few days ago. He fell on our necks and teld us how he loved us, and how he longed to become popular in our village. He said that, just to show his heart was in the right place, hed put through a little two-handed massacre especially to entertain us. If we could spare Kid Lewis he was perfectly willing to do his share.

PPARENTLY Mike had a change of heart. He met Kid Lewis when and when and when and chipped the wanted to. Then he stayed his hand. Some people even thought he pulled them back. We predicted some such possibility in yesterday's Evening World, and we had it right. Mike showed that could beak and we had it right. Mike showed that he could beak kid Lewis when back. Mike weighed 152½ pounds; and overely turning his head—Willard was not considered. Take was outclassed. It was no fight. But Lewis is first and celever, and he did his best if there was any "agreement" Lewis wasn't bitten of bexing. As the bout went gether again he went on tapping. He used his right hand very little.

In the last round Lewis, rushing, swung a hard right flush on Mike's mouth. It was a hard crack, and Mike lost his smile. For a moment he forgot himself, cut out the tap-tapping, stood up straight and nailed Lewis with lefts and rights that jarred him back on his heels. Then Mike remembered and went back to the tapping again.

"Oh Mike," wailed the fan in the gallary, "why don't you take off the handcuffe?"

The little Englishman was evidently doing his level best. If Gibbons had any idea of stalling along and winning his fight in the last couple of rounds he waited too long. Lewis had his strength again and was cutting out a pace that kept Gibbons busy.

When the "fight" was over Lewis was cheered by the crowd and Mike was hooted as he left the ring. you will find here at $1.50.
